

This Commission perused the documents brought in by the PIO which were, however, found not signed. The appellant also pointed out that the documents are incomplete. He, therefore, pleaded that the PIO be directed to furnish the documents dully countersigned and also to furnish the remaining information in pen drive for which he will visit the o/o the PIO. The appellant also demanded that penal action under section 20 of the RTI Act should be initiated against the PIO for delaying the furnishing of the requested information within the statutory period of one month.

This Commission, upon hearing the parties and perusal of the documents, directed the PIO to furnish the dully signed documents with proper indexing in tabular form and furnish the remaining documents in pendrive within 5(five) days and the appellant shall, within 2(two) days thereafter, intimate this Commission of the receipt of the documents to enable this Commission to consider the appeal further
