CHAPTER-1

INTRODUCTION

The enactment of the Right to Information Act, 2005 is a historic event in the annals of democracy in India. Information is power and now a citizen has a right to access information “held by or under the control of” the public authorities. Concurrently, it is the duty of all public authorities to provide information sought by citizens. A sea changed can be achieved towards transparency and accountability in the governance by implementing the Act in letter and spirit.

India being a welfare State, it is the duty of the Government to protect and enhance the welfare of the people. It is obvious from the Constitution of India that we have adopted a democratic form of Government. Where a society has chosen to accept democracy as its credal faith, it is elementary that the citizens ought to know what their Government is doing. The citizens have a right to decide by whom and by what rules they shall be governed and they are entitled to call on those who can survive without accountability and the basic postulate of accountability is that the people should have information about the functioning of the Government. It is only if people know how Government is functioning that they can fulfil the role which democracy assigns to them and make democracy a really effective participatory democracy. “Knowledge”, said James Madison, “will for ever govern ignorance and a people who meant to be their own governors must arms themselves with the power knowledge gives. A popular Government without popular information or the means to obtain it, is but a prologue to farce or tragedy or perhaps both”. The citizens’ right to know the facts, about the administration of the country is thus one of the pillars of a democratic State. And that is why the demand for openness in the Government is increasingly growing in different parts of the world.

The Act mandates a legal – institutional framework for setting out practical regime of right to information for every citizen to secure access to information under the control of public authorities. It prescribes mandatory disclosure of certain information to citizens, and designation of Public Information Officers and Assistant Public Information Officers in all public offices / institutions to attend to requests from citizens for information within the stipulated time limits. It provides for appeal to officers senior in rank to Public Information Officers. It also mandates the constitution of a Central Information Commission and State Information Commissions to inquire into, hear second appeals and guide implementation of the Act.

The Right to Information Act, 2005 is now 12 years old. Credit goes to the Civil Society activism that brought the RTI Act into force in India. Civil Society Organization like Mazdoor Kishan Shakti Sangathan, National Campaign on People's Right to Information, Press Council and so on fought protracted and arduous campaign for enactment of the RTI Act in India.

The Indian Right to Information Act came fully into force on 12th October, 2005. However, in the State of Arunachal Pradesh, the Arunachal Pradesh Information Commission (APIC) was constituted on 19/10/2006. The law created Information Commissions with unique powers which can imposed a penalty of Rs.25,000/- on Public Information Officers (PIOs) for delay in disclosure of information and so on. India is one of the few countries to introduce such powerful Information Commissions.

As a result, India enacted a strong RTI law. According to recent in international assessment, India is placed 4th in the list of 112 Countries with the strongest national level RTI laws.

Civil Society's efforts did not end there. They continued their struggle so that any effort to weaken the law is nipped in the bud. Even after twelve years, the law remains intact; not a single provision has been amended or weakened so far.

The Indian Right to Information Act served as a model for the Countries, particularly its neighbours, who enacted even stronger open laws, creating healthy Competition.

Looking back over the past decade, in the case of State of Arunachal Pradesh, we conclude that the implementation of the laws has been encouraging. There is general feeling that the law is working. The level of implementation on all sanctioned schemes have been implemented fully.

Many people of the State of Arunachal Pradesh have been filing requests for information and hundreds of successful stories appeared in electronic and print media. Even school going children filed applications and shot into fame. It is worth mentioning that some activists like Prof. Nani Batt, Techhi Hemu.

However, many citizens of the State are not able to use the law to its fullest extent due to unawareness. For example, RTI is very effective in protecting environment and very few are able to file applications seeking information.

On the other hand, thousands of officers designated as Public Information Officers (PIOs) are in need of proper guidance. Without appropriate guidance, activists using the law to access the information as well as officials responsible for implementing the law cannot take decisions confidently. Such guidance cut down the number of cases that would otherwise be brought to the Information Commissions on appeal. Public authorities need not make the same error of interpretation in response to other similar information requested.

Both the activists and Public Information Officers (PIOs) are equally responsible for keeping law alive; society recognises then for their contribution towards the campaign for transparency and openness to check corruption.

The nodal agency responsible for implementation of the RTI Act, the Department of Administrative Reforms Government of Arunachal Pradesh Published “Guide on Right to Information Act, 2005” in 2015.

Apart from such general guidelines, the Arunachal Pradesh Information Commission (APIC) has undertaken extensive tours to District Headquarter of Arunachal Pradesh to create awareness amongst the citizens and the officers on RTI Act, 2005.

The basic objective of the Right to Information Act is to empower the citizens, promote transparency and accountability in the working of the Government, contain corruption and make Indian democracy meaningful, vibrant and effective for the people in real sense. The Act is a big step towards the citizens informed about the activities of the Government.

Evidently, the major objectives of the Act are:

- 1) Greater Transparency in functioning of public authorities and pro-active and suo motu disclosure of information
- 2) Improvement in accountability and performance of the Government.
- 3) Promotion of partnership between citizens and the government in decision making process; and
- 4) Reduction in corruption in the Government Departments

In compliance of the above provisions of the Act, all levels of the Government – the Centre, States and the Local Bodies including Village level Panchayats – have put the records in public domain, through publications as well as internet, and to facilitate the access to information, a citizen has the right to:

- a) Inspection of work, documents records;
- b) Taking notes, extracts or certified copies of the documents or records;

- c) Taking certified sample of material; and
- d) Obtaining information in electronic form, if available.

Thus, all the public authorities have duly placed the information in public domain and that a citizen has a right to observe as to what is going on inside an organization. In the cases where the information sought for are not provided within the stipulated period of 30 days or the information furnished are incomplete, misleading or incorrect, a requester is free to file a complaint or appeal before the Information Commissioners, for necessary directions to the parties as per the provisions of the Act.

The Commission has the mandate, inter-alia, to impose penalty and or to recommend disciplinary action against the delinquent information providers, if held responsible for obstructing the free flow of information. Accordingly, information seekers and the NGOs have put pressure on the public authorities for promoting the culture of openness in functioning of the Government. A large numbers of PIOs have already been fined for violation of the provisions of the Act, which has, in effect created conditions for providing information to a requester.

Also, due to effective implementation of the Act, both the Centre and the States effectively implemented various schemes and programmes such as :

- a) National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme (Assured jobs),
- b) Sarwa Shiksha Abhiyan (Education for all),
- c) Mid –day Meal Scheme,
- d) Drinking Water Mission,
- e) Integrated Child Development Services,
- f) National Rural Health Mission,

- g) Bharat Nirman (Rural Infrastructure, mainly Road, Electricity, Potable Drinking Water, Sanitation etc.
- h) Indira Avas Yagna (Shelter for the Poor),
- i) Border area Deveopment Fund (BADP),
- j) National Health Mission (NHM) etc.

All these programmes and several other similar schemes covered under the MP / MLA Local Area Development Fund are aimed at providing the basic human needs for maintaining a decent standard of living. These schemes were implemented at the whims of the so-called political boss and never percolated to the needy and poor citizens of the country. However, with the implementation of the Act, it brings transparency and has exposed corruption at all levels and, moreover, enable the citizens to build their strengths and abilities to realize their socio-economic objectives.

With the empowered citizens and free flow of information, there is significant quantitative and qualitative improvement in the delivery of services and realization of benefits of the programmes designed and implemented for the poor. For instance, disclosure of information relating to :

- i) Attendance of staff in schools has helped in checking teachers' abseintism and students' drop out;
- ii) Attendance of doctors and nurses at primary health centres has led to improvement in health care facilities in rural areas;
- iii) Bio metric system introduced in all public offices has led to regular attendance of both the officers and employees which led to quick movement and disposal of files.
- iv) The details of supplies and distribution of food grains through ration shops has assured the reach of entitlements to the beneficiaries;

v) The supply and demand for petroleum products, such as, domestic gas has reduced black marketing;

vi) Muster rolls and beneficiary of employment guarantee schemes has exposed corruption and ensured effective delivery of services to the poor;

vii) Allotment of retail outlets (petrol pumps) and agencies for distribution of LPG gas has ensued fairplay and objective decisions, as reflected from substantial reduction in litigation cases in the matter.

The citizens could come to know through various RTI applications about the illegal appointment in various government department and even exposed wrong marking of answer scripts by the examining body giving extra marks and favouritism to a particular candidate and got appointed illegally by adopting unfair means.

Right to Information Act provides a broad framework for Government and Citizens' interference to design and monitor relevant projects, contain corruption, ensure accountability and to mutually share the responsibility for development. Under the Act, the public authorities are required to adopt open and transparent procedures and methods of delivery of services. They ought to reveal what they do, how they do and what are the outcomes of the policies, programmes and public expenditures. In a democratic society, the citizens, NGOs and media have the right to know as to how they are governed and they also have right to exercise their options to indicate how they ought to be governed and served by the Government. It is important, therefore, to ensure the following:

- a) Proactive and suo motu disclosure of information: - Under section 4 of the Act, all the 'Public Authorities are required to make proactive disclosure of information. Almost entire gamut of their activities and the manner in which they are executed are to be disclosed. The issue is how to present and and capture the relevant information that can be of use to the stakeholders for realizing their rights. The Computerization of records and use of IT resources to ensure transparency in functioning of different departments should be accorded high priority. The information should be disclosed on suo motu basis so that a citizen does not have to resort to the provisions of the RTI Act. Almost all the Ministries / Departments have to put up information on their websites, which needs to be examined to assess the adequacy of their details for analysis and use of information.

- b) Promote Information Literacy: - The Act empowers every citizen to seek information and to gain ideas and acquire new knowledge to improve quality of life as well as to participate in the effective governance of public authorities. The issue is how to promote information literacy among people to enable them to decide what to ask for, how to ask and how to make good use of information, so that they can effectively participate in the process of development, including control of corruption.

The issue of promotion of information literacy among the both educated and not so well educated citizens is critical, because the people and the government functionaries share the responsibility of expediting the process of development. Accordingly, under Section 26 of the Act, provisions have been made for advancement of understanding of the public through education and training programmes. A multimedia strategy for promotion of information literacy should be designed by Information Commission, all the public authorities, including educational institution, in collaboration with media agencies so as to ensure greater interface between the stakeholders. The task is challenging, as less than 10 per cent of the poor have some awareness about the law on RTI and the manner in which it could be used by them to claim for their entitlements. The potential of IT resources and widespread educational institutions of all types and levels should be exploited to promote information literacy. The government should provide all necessary supports for such awareness programmes at all levels for effective implementation of the Act.

The Right to Information Act has a comprehensive reach and covers a wide spectrum of bodies. All the Departments and undertakings of the Central and State Governments, institutions, agencies and other bodies established, constituted, owned, controlled or substantially financed by Governments including non-governmental organizations come under the Act. Every citizen of India has the right to access information which is held by or under the control of any public authority under this Act. Such access to information includes inspection of documents or records, taking certified samples of material, cassettes or in any other electronic mode or through print outs where such information is stored in a computer or in any other device.

Faith in democratic form of government rest on the old dictum: “Let people have the truth and freedom to discuss it and all will go well”. Democracy means Government of the people, by the people, and for the people. However, if the citizens are ignorant of the decisions taken by the Government and reasons advanced for the same, there can be no Government by the people. Every citizen has a fundamental right to know what the Government is doing in its name and for this purpose to get information on each and every decision being taken by the Government. The Right to Information Act, 2005 is the most progressive legislation to make the right to information more participatory, progressive and meaningful, indeed is a step in this direction.

Future of RTI: A major challenge is to develop capacities for access to information. The capacities of both the public authorities (i.e. the duty bearers) and the citizens (i.e. the claim holders) may have to be enhanced, for which a two pronged strategy would be needed.

First, a comprehensive information management system (IMS) should be developed by each public authority for storage and retrieval of data and information that may be shared with anyone who seeks to inspect and use the information for development purposes. Not only the institutional capacity but also the individuals associated with facilities to cope with the demand for sharing of information.

Second, in order to properly manage the demand for information from the NGOs, in general, and the citizens, in particular, a concerted effort would be needed to create mass awareness among the people to promote information literacy. A multimedia approach should be adopted to educate and train people as to how to decide and select what information should be sought for and that from where and how? Besides, they should be educated as to how to make best use of information for effective participation in economic and political processes. This alone can ensure cost-effective use of the provisions of the RTI Act. Now the time has come to uphold true democracy in India. Or else continue to swallow in the political cesspool which hails rampant corruption, favouritism etc.

CHAPTER- 2

A BRIEF ABOUT ARUNACHAL PRADESH INFORMATION

COMMISSION

The Right to Information Act, 2005 is a landmark legislation that has transformed the relationship between the citizen and the state. This legislation has created for every citizen to hold the instrumentalities of Government accountable on day to day basis. The legislation perceives the common man as an active participant in process of nation building by conferring on him a right to participate in the process through the implementation of Right to Information Act.

It has been a decade since the RTI Act has been in operation in the state of Arunachal Pradesh. A key strength of the Act pertains to administrative and adjudicative autonomy of Information Commission.

The Right to Information Act 2005 came into force in Arunachal Pradesh along with the rest of the country on 19th October 2006 after 120 days of its enactment. As per the provisions of this Act, State Public Information Officers (SPIO) and Assistant Public Information Officers (APIO) were appointed by the Government of Arunachal Pradesh with separate notifications. In pursuance to the provisions of Clause 3 of Section 15 of the Right to Information Act, a selection committee was constituted for the appointment of State Chief Information Commissioner and State Information Commissioners. On 13th October 2006, Arunachal Pradesh Information Commission (APIC) was constituted and the State Chief Information Commissioner and State Information Commissioners were administered the oath of secrecy by His Excellency Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, on 19th October 2006.

ORDER

Facts of the case in brief is that the Appellant Sri Gem Doli of Sekang Colony, P.O. R.K.Mission, P.S. Itanagar District Papum Pare, Arunachal Pradesh had filed an RTI application in form 'A' before the PIO-cum- Superintending Engineer (C) Department of Hydro Power Development, Itanagar Civil Circle, Itanagar (AP) on 14/03/2016 seeking the following information :

1. Answer sheet & marks of written examination & Viva-Voice of the qualified 15 candidates and
2. Self marks sheets & Viva- Voce marks/ Answer sheets.

The Appellant in his appeal under section 19 (3) of the RTI Act, 2005 stated that information sought in SL No. 1 was not furnished and the information sought in SL. NO. 2 was furnished by the PIO within the stipulated period of 30 days as provided under section 7 (1) of the Act.

The said information was denied by the PIO on the ground of that the information asked for is exempted under section 8 (1) (d) and (j) of the RTI Act, 2005.

The First Appellate Authority (FAA) also upheld the decision of the PIO. Being aggrieved by the decision of the orders of the PIO & the First Appellate Authority, the Appellant appealed before this Commission on 02/04/2016.

The Commission admitted the appeal and issued notice upon the parties to appear before the Commission on 06/06/2016 to substantiate their claims and objection if any during the hearing. The Respondent PIO appeared. However, the Appellant remain absent. The Respondent stated that the remaining information as sought for are exempt from disclosure of information under section 8 (I) (d) & (j) of the RTI Act, 2005. In this case the PIO has refused to give copies of the answer sheets and marks of written examination & Viva – Voce of the qualified 15 candidates in the merit list claiming exemption under section 8 (i) (d) & (j) of the RTI Act. Section 8 (I) (d) exempts, “ Information including commercial confidence, trade secrets or intellectual property, the disclosure of which would harm the competitive position of the third party, unless the competent authority is satisfied that larger Public interest warrants the disclosure of such information.” (j) exempts, “ Information which relates to personal information the disclosure of which has no relationship to any Public activity or interest or which cause unwarranted invasion of the privacy of the individual unless the central Public Information Officer or state Public Information Officer or the appellate authority as the case may be, is satisfied that larger Public interest Justifies the disclosure of such information which cannot be denied to parliament or a state legislature shall not be denied to any person.”

The Public Information Officer (PIO) has erred in interpretation of the provisions of the Act and its effective implementation in true spirit of total transparency in functioning of the Public bodies. The outcomes of the examination process should be put in Public domain so that the affected persons can have access to it.

An answer script of an examination conducted for a job selection cannot be considered as personal information. Besides the answer scripts were given in course of a Public activity which is appearing for a Job for a Public position.

Besides it is impossible to imagine that disclosing an answer sheet cannot be considered as privacy domain of an individual.

The appointing or recommending authority in the matters of such selection, are required and expected to act objectively and to select the best and to see that evaluation were done free and fair or whether marks were awarded arbitrarily. Such selection process remains subject to Judicials review.

Therefore, the inspection of answer scripts cannot be kept out of the purview of the “information” or for that matter from the purview of records by stretch of imagination.

The appellant should be provided photocopies of the answer- sheets after blanking out the name of the examiner, chief examiner, their initials and code numbers.

Access to information should be made- user friendly and make operationnalised. The Right to Information Act guaranties time bound response to citizen’ queries o the matters of governance as provided under section 7 of the RTI Act 2005.

The very object of the Right to Information Act, 2005 is to bring a culture of transparency and accountability to provide for setting out the practical regimes of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of Public authorities. In order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of Public authority, democracy requires informed citizenry and transparency of information which are vital to its functioning and to contain corruption and to hold governments and their instrumentalities accountable to the governed.

Transparency beings government closure to the people a closeness which underpins good governance. Inspite of repeated directions to the Public authority, the results on account of voluntarily disclosure have been below “Par”.One of the cardinal aspects of the RTI i.e. timely furnishing of quality information to citizen at all levels is essential for transparency. However, the PIOs citing various excuses such as the records sought being vague.Eternal vigilance is the price of democracy. We have very useful tool in RTI to make our democracy meaningful, vibrant and effective.

I am of the opinion that it is in the larger public interest to ensure transparency in the method of valuation of every public examination and to satisfy every candidate who appeared in the examination that his answer script has been valued properly, and non- disclosure of the information would be against the spirit of the Right of Information Act.

Thus, this Commission strongly believes that providing information would help ensure impartiality, objectivity and fairness. In view of what has been discussed and observed above, the Commission transpires that the Respondent has failed to discharge his public functions and duty by not furnishing the required information to the information seeker in accordance with the provision of the RTI Act. Accordingly the Commission allows the appeal.

Since the Respondent PIO Superintending Engineer (C) Department of Hydro-power Development Itanagar Civil Circle, Itanagar (AP) has the custody of the documents, is directed to make available the information to the Appellant free of cost on 27/06/2016 at 1030 Hrs before this Commission for final disposal of the appeal failing which the Commission shall be compelled to invoke section 20 (1) of the RTI Act, 2005 upon the Respondent PIO.

Let the copy of this order be furnished to both the parties free of cost.

BEFORE THE HON'BLE COURT OF MR MATHEIM LINGGLI, INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

ORDER

Fact of the case in brief is that the Appellant Sri John Libang C/o HUD, Deptt. of Political Science, Rajiv Gandhi University, Rono Hills, Doimukh, Papum Pare District (AP) has filed an RTI application before the Public Information Officer –cum- Deputy Director of School Education (E) DSE's office Itanagar on 11/01/2016 seeking the following information:

- (1) Cabinet Notings of recently advertised post of PGT & TGT by DSE vide Advertisement No. EDZ/DSE/290/APT/2015.
- (2) Unofficial notings of the cabinet for the above.
- (3) Cabinet notings of advertised post of PGT on 8th July, 2011 vide Advertisement No. EDZ/ST/16/11-12.
- (4) RR for PGT & TGT (Existing RR)
- (5) Any representation requesting the Department to let the Public Service Commission to conduct the examination for PGT & TGT.

The Public Information Officer PIO has not responded to the RTI application of the Appellant within the stipulated period of 30 days as provided under section 7 (1) of the RTI Act, 2005.

Being aggrieved by the action of the PIO, the Appellant appealed before the First Appellate Authority (FFA) –cum- Secretary Education, Government of Arunachal Pradesh Itanagar on 23/03/2016.

The First Appellate Authority has on 31/03/2016 directed the PIO to furnish the information to the Appellant but was not complied on the ground that SL No. 1, 2, & 3 are exempted under the Act and the remaining information were furnished. However, the Appellant is not satisfied with decision and hence the appeal.

During the hearing, both the Appellant and the Respondent PIO appeared. The Appellant stated that the Respondent has not furnished the remaining information as mentioned in SL No. 1, 2 & 3 of his RTI application.

The Respondent in his reply stated that the information as sought are exempted under clause 3. 11. 1 (i) of the RTI Act, 2005 for furnishing of cabinet decision. Prima facie, this Commission is of the considered view that the Respondent PIO has denied the information to the Appellant. If the authorities of government refused the disclosure of documents the very purpose of the RTI Act will be frustrated. Moreover, the disclosure of information sought for by the petitioner appellant cannot and shall not be exempted under the Act, rather the disclosure of such information shall be in Public interest, inasmuch as it will show transparency in the activities of the Government. From the record, it transpires to this Commission that the Public Information Officer has quoted wrong Sections and clauses. There is no such clause, namely 3.11.1(i) in the RTI Act, 2005 pertaining to cabinet decision. Section 8 (1) (i) of the RTI Act, 2005 comes under exemption from disclosure of information pertaining to cabinet papers the section 8 (1) (i) runs follows as :- “ Notwithstanding anything contain in this Act, there shall be no obligation to give any citizens cabinet papers including records of deliberations of the Council of Ministers, Secretaries and other officers:

Provided that the decisions of Council of Ministers, the reasons thereof, and the material on the basis of which the decisions has been taken, and the matter is complete, or over:

Provided further that those matters which come under the exemptions specified in this section shall not be disclosed.

Cabinet decision in the matter is long over, the information sought can also be provided under proviso to section 8 (1) (i) of the RTI Act, 2005.

In terms of section 8 (1) (i) cabinet decisions, the reasons thereof and the material on which the decision were taken shall be made Public after the decision is taken and matter is complete except those covered under any exemption in section 8 of the RTI Act. However, the Cabinet noting which is under process for absorption for the recently advertised posts of PGT & TGT may not be furnished till completion of the process.

There is no exemption qua noting portions of the files and, therefore, the information concerning 'noting portions' of the files shall have to be supplied to the citizens under the Act. This may be a grey area where interpretation of the provisions of the Act may be required from the courts but going by what section 8 of the Act lays down certainly 'noting portions' falls within the purview of the Act and information regarding the same cannot be denied under the Act.

As is evident from the preamble of the Right to Information Act, the Act has been enacted to vest with the citizens, the right to access to information under the control of Public authorities in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of any Public authority.

Perused the case record. From the records it transpires to this Commission that the Respondent has deliberately violated section 7(1) of the RTI Act by not furnishing the information as sought for by the applicant appellant. Therefore, the conduct of the Respondent PIO is deprecated.

Access to information should be made user - friendly and make operationalised. The Right to Information Act guarantees time bound response to citizens' queries on the matters of governance as provided under section 7 of the RTI Act 2005.

The very object of the Right to Information Act, 2005 is to bring a culture of transparency and accountability to provide for setting out the practical regimes of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities. In order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority, democracy requires informed citizenry and transparency of information which are vital to its functioning and also to contain corruption and to hold governments and their instrumentalities accountable to the governed.

Transparency brings government closer to the people - a closeness which underpins good governance. In spite of repeated directions to the public authorities, the results on account of voluntarily disclosure have been below "par".

One of the cardinal aspects of the RTI i.e. timely furnishing of quality information to citizen at all levels is essential for transparency. However, the PIOs are citing various excuses such as the records sought for being vague. Eternal vigilance is the price of democracy. We have a very useful tool in RTI to make our democracy meaningful, vibrant and effective.

DECISION

Thus, this commission strongly believes that providing information would help ensure impartiality, objectivity and fairness.

In view of what has been discussed and observed above, the Commission transpires that the respondent has failed to furnish the information as sought for within the stipulated period of 30 days in violation of section 7(1) of the RTI Act, 2005.

Accordingly the Commission allows the appeal.

Since, the Respondent PIO -cum- Directorate of Secondary Education Itanagar, Dist:- Papum Pare (AP) who has the custody of the documents is hereby directed to make available the information to the Appellant free of cost on 27/06/2016 at 1030 Hrs before this Commission for final disposal of the appeal failing which the Commission shall be compelled to invoke section 20(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 upon the Respondent PIO.

ORDER

The brief fact of the case is that 27/04/2016 the Appellant Mr. Dohu Tale sought detail information on List of Community Health officer from concern DMO through respective Joint Director from Directorate of Health Services Naharlagun. Being deprived of complete information the appellant under Section 19(3) of the RTI Act, appealed before the Commission for necessary action as per the provision the Act. Date of Hearing: 15-05-2017

BEFORE THE HON'BLE COURT OF SHRI ABRAHAM K TECHI, INFORMATION COMMISSIONER

ORDER

The fact of the case is that on 30/06/2016 the Appellant Mr. Biki Mangmi sought detail information on implementation various of schemes by Department of Agriculture which were executed through District Agriculture Officer of Aalo, Daporijo, Namsai and Tezu.

Having aggrieved of non-response from the Public Information Officer and the Appellate Authority, the appellant on 13/09/2016 under Section 19(3) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 appealed before the Commission for necessary action as per the provision of the Act.

Taking cognizance of the appeal, the Commission issued notice and orders dated 25th Oct.2016, 17th Nov.2016, 30th Nov. 2016, 15th Dec.2016, 20th Jan.2017, 15th Feb.2017, 09th March 2017, 11th April 2017, 25th April 2017 and 15th May 2017. The Public Information Officer in his submission before the Commission had stated that the information sought by appellant are very vast in nature and not available with him and has to collect it from the respective District Agriculture Officers who were the custodians of the sought information.

In most of the hearing the Public Information Officer assure the Commission to furnish the information but failed to do so due to non-cooperation from the deem Public Information Officers who are posted at remote areas of the state.

Having felt of too much delay to furnish the information by the Public Information Officer and also the amount of time and money the appellant had spent while attending before the Court of the Commission for hearing, the Commission invoke Section 20(1) and Section 19(8)(b) and imposed penalty of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand) only and awarded compensation of Rs. 10,260/- (Rupees ten thousand two hundred sixty) only. While complying the order of the Commission, the Public Information Officer on 24th May 2017 submitted a duplicate copy of treasury challan of Rs. 25,000/-(penalty amount) and also receipt of Rs.10260/-(compensation amount). Further, the appellant in his written submission before the Commission that all the information sought by the appellant were furnished and requested the case to be closed.

In the instant case, the Commission has come across that pretty long period had been taken to furnish the information sought by the appellant due to submission of application to the Public Information Officer of Director of Agriculture instead of District Agriculture Officers who are also the Public Information Officers. Further, both the Public Information Officer and the appellant wasted enough time to collect the information from the respective District Agriculture Officers. In this regard the Commission directs the appellant to file his future applications to concern Public Information Officers for quick response instead of shifting the responsibility to the Head of Department to collect the information from the Public Information Officers in the District level.

Having satisfied with the action taken by the Public Information Officer of the Department of Agriculture, the Commission hereby dispose of the instant case.

ORDER

Heard Shri Kenjom Kato, the application complainant. Also heard Er. Getom Borang, Public Information Officer (PIO) –cum- Superintending Engineer, (Hq), Water Resources Department, Government of Arunachal Pradesh Itanagar. Also heard Sri S. Ghose, Inspector, Special Investigation Cell (SIC) Vigilance (VIG) Itanagar. The third parties i.e. 40 (forty) successful candidates are also heard.

Brief facts of the case is that the applicant though qualified in the preliminary examination and completed up to written level examination for the post of Junior Engineer under the Department of Water Resource Department, Government of A.P. Itanagar which was conducted by the said Department vide Junior Engineer (Civil) Result Notification No. WRD/ 1335/2004 (Pt-I) C of dated Itanagar the 18th December, 2016 wherein he could not qualify for selection to the post.

The applicant has filed an RTI application on 28/02/2017, under section 6 (1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 before the Public Information Officer-cum-Superintending Engineer, (Hq) WRD, Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh, Itanagar seeking the following information:

- (1) Total marks obtained in written Exam & Viva-voce by 40 (forty) selected candidates and his own evaluated answer script bearing Roll no JC 1304.
- (2) C/Sd. Xerox copy of all the Answer Scripts (1. G.K. 2. English & Technical paper (Civil Engineers) of the following 15 (fifteen) selected candidates whose Roll no. are: (1) JC 1926, (2) JC 0733 (3) JC 2336 (4) JC 0823 (5) JC 0700 (6) JC 0286 (7) JC 1241 (8) JC 0195 (9) JC 2414 (10) JC 1657 (11) JC 2236 (12) JC 1911 (13) JC 1789 (14) JC 0413 & non-selected Roll no. JC 1304. Period for which information sought- 2016-17.

On 9th March, 2017, the PIO -cum- Superintending Engineer (HQ) WRD, Itanagar in his reply vide letter no. WRD/RTI/05/2010-11/(Pt-vii) dated 09/03/2017 informed the applicant that all the documents of information as sought by him was seized by SP SIC vide a case no- SIC (VIG) PS Enquiry No. 41/2016 dated 30/01/2017.

Being aggrieved, the applicant preferred a complaint before the Commission under section 18 (1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 for non furnishing of the information as sought for.

During the hearing the Respondent PIO informed the Commission that the said evaluated answer scripts of all the successful candidates were seized by the SIC (VIG) Itanagar and the same has not yet been returned and as such he could not furnish the information to the applicant and prayed the Commission to direct the SIC to submit the said document to the Commission for inspection.

Shri S. Ghose was summoned under section 18 (3) of the RTI Act, 2005 to appear before the Commission along with the seized answer scripts of all successful candidates including the applicants answer scripts.

Sri S. Ghose stated that the preliminary Enquiry was taken up on 02/01/2017 on the strength of a complaint received from one Shri Token Haring, president Arunachal Vigilance forum which was lodged on 22/12/2016 against Er. Likar Angu, Chief Engineer, WRD, Western Zone, Itanagar in connection alleged with improper checking of answer scripts/evaluation which were not done free and fair and awarded arbitrarily and selection process/ appointment was biased and allegation of favoritism / nepotism was done to their kids and kins and also allegation of corrupt practices adopted by concerned authority by depriving the genuine candidates. Sri S. Ghose further stated that apart from this allegation, the complainant alleged that 90% of the appointees were from a particular community i.e. Adi belt and the officers who conducted the said examination belong to said Adi Tribe. Shri S.Ghose further stated that the preliminary Enquiry is almost completed which took more than 6 (six) months. He further stated that as per norms of preliminary enquiry, requisition of documents was done and accordingly the said documents were handed over to him for inquiry. However, no formal seizure memo was prepared at the time of seizure of the documents. Shri S.Ghose produced the document i.e. Annexure- I to VII and all the seized evaluated answer scripts of all 41 selected candidates including the evaluated answer scripts of the applicant in sealed cover.

The Commission inspected all the evaluated answer scripts of the selected candidates including the evaluated answer scripts examined by the examiner including the evaluated answer scripts of the applicant. On perusal of the records namely answer scripts of all the 40 (forty) selected candidates, prima- facie I am satisfied that there are discrepancies and irregularities in the said answer scripts. Hence consciously decided to get report from the technical expert to ascertain as to whether the evaluated answer scripts of the selected candidates were evaluated properly or not. Accordingly a committee was constituted to examine the already evaluated answer scripts of the candidates including the applicant's answer scripts to ascertain whether evaluation of answer scripts given by the examiner were done free and fair or awarded marks arbitrarily while selecting candidates.

The committee submitted its report on 21/09/2017 to the Commission. As per report of the committee, there are discrepancies in the hand writing. Some of the evaluation has been done incorrect.

Considering the findings and opinion of the committee, I considered it necessary to issue notice upon all the 40 (forty) candidates - the third parties to hear them by giving reasonable opportunities of hearing before arriving at a just decision.

Accordingly, the Commission while complying section 19 (4) of the Right to Information Act, 2005, heard all the third parties.

During the hearing, as many as 40 (forty) selected candidates objected to in furnishing information i.e. their evaluated answer scripts on the ground that it is their personal information and if disclosed, they have the apprehension in their mind that it may be uploaded in social media which will amount to disgraceful to their reputation in society. They contended that the information sought is exempted under section 8 (1) (j) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 and as such it is a personal documents which amounts to invasion of privacy and there is fiduciary relationship by the Respondent PIO with the examinees and raised objection in furnishing the said information.

Before coming to a conclusion, the Commission framed the following three issues for its decision, which are:

- (1) Whether revelation of information, i.e. the answer scripts of the other candidates will render the system of conduct of the competitive examination unworkable in practice?
- (2) Whether there is fiduciary relationship between the WRD and the candidates appearing for competitive examination for recruitment to public office and hence exempted from disclosure under section 8 (1) (e) of the Right to Information Act, 2005?
- (3) Whether evaluated answer scripts of the candidates of the competitive examination are purely personal information and disclosure of which has no relation to any public interest or activity and exempted from disclosure under section 8 (1) (j) of the Right to Information Act, 2005?

As regards definition of fiduciary relationship it is one whereby a person places complete confidence in another in regard to a particular transaction or his general officers or business. The relationship need not be ‘formally’ or ‘legally’ ordained, or established, like in the case of a written trust; but can be one of moral or personal responsibility, due to better superior knowledge or training or superior status of the fiduciary as compared to the one whose affairs he handles.

“A fiduciary is someone who has undertaken to act and on behalf of another in a particular matter in circumstances which give rise to a relationship of trust and confidence”.

The party relying on this relationship must prove that the relationship extends to non-disclosure of particular information being sought by an information seeker under RTI Act. It is of critical importance to determine the scope, extent and purpose for which such a fiduciary relationship exists. Any failure to determine this issue, at the very outset, may result in missing the core issue whether the information being sought is allowable or not under clause (e) of section 8 (1).

In the present case, the Water Resource Department (WRD) Government of Arunachal Pradesh has been given the responsibility for conducting the Junior Engineer examination, including setting of question paper, making all necessary arrangements for the conduct of list “in a smooth and fair manner”, to evaluate OMR answer sheets to prepare result and the merit list. It was the total responsibility of the Department to maintain secrecy and fairness till the declaration of result”.

Once the result is declared and performance of the competing examinees is put in public domain, secrecy has no service to perform, it is better buried. The evaluated answer sheet could be disclosed, without disclosing the identity of the paper setter or the evaluator or examiner or invigilator. There is no better way to do this, than to place the evaluated answer sheets in public domain. Let the answer sheets speak for themselves, so as to affirm faith in the sanctity of equal opportunity. Fiduciary relationship cannot be so interpreted as to constrict this constitutional right. Besides, the larger public interest justifies such disclosure.

Information being sought pertains to access answer sheets of an examination conducted for recruitment to a public office. By nature, such an examination is a competitive process, where comparisons are drawn to select the best talent. Therefore, an answer sheet cannot be said to be personal or private information, disclosure of which has no relationship with any public activity or interest. When a person offers himself for a public competition, he enters public domain, for comparison with other candidates would be the criteria for selection. Performance of each examinee automatically becomes a common knowledge; moment result of competitive process is announced. Openness is the essence of fairness.

The answer sheet, therefore, could never be classified as 'confidential' after the declaration of result of an examination. It is a public document in the custody of a public authority conducting an examination for a public service. The answer sheets or marks obtained by candidates are a sacrosanct public record impacting public life and the fate and future of the competitors.

Nothing in the administrative realm is personal or private - those who choose to enter public affairs, must learn to have by public scrutiny. It would stir up the examiners, make the assessment fairer and free from lapses or whimsical marking. Keeping in view the objective that the Act seeks to achieve, the Commission will have no hesitation in holding that the spirit of the Act enjoys disclosure of information as general rule and exemption therefrom as an exception.

An answer script of an examination conducted for a job selection cannot be considered as personal information. Besides the answer scripts were given in course of a Public activity which is appearing for a Job for a Public position. Besides it is impossible to imagine that disclosing an answer sheet cannot be considered as privacy domain of an individual.

The appointing or recommending authority in the matters of such selection, are required and expected to act objectively and to select the best and to see that evaluation were done free and fair or whether marks were awarded arbitrarily. Such selection process remains subject to judicial review.

Therefore, the inspection of answer scripts cannot be kept out of the purview of the "information" or for that matter from the purview of records by stretch of imagination.

The appellant should be provided photocopies of the answer- sheets after blanking out the name of the examiner, chief examiner, their initials and code numbers.

Information Concerned with Third Party:-

What satisfaction must be arrived at prior to disclosure of information about third party:-

Looking to the provisions of the Act especially section 8 (1) (d) & 8 (j) and proviso to section 11 (1) information to applicant relating to or supplied by the third party and treating as confidential by the third party, the Act imposes a duty upon Commission to arrive at a conclusion that public interest in disclosure outweighs, harm and injury, to the protected interest warrants disclosure of such information.

In considering whether the public interest in disclosure harm or injury to the interest of such third party, the Commission will have to consider the following:-

- (I) The objections raised by the third party by claiming confidentiality in respect of the information sought for
- (II) Whether the information is being sought by the appellant in larger public interest or to wreak vendetta against the third party.
- (III) In deciding that the profile of person seeking information and his credentials will have to be looked into the profile of the person seeking information in the light of the other attending circumstances, lead to construction that under the pretext of serving public interest, such person is aiming to settle personal score against the third party, it cannot be said that the public interest warrants disclosure of information solicited.
- (IV) The public Information Officer dealing within the information relating to or supplied by the third party has to constantly bear in mind that the Act does not become a tool in the hands of a busy body to settle a personal score.

If the disclosure of the information sought for is likely to cause harm to the competitive position of a third party and so long as the overwhelming larger public interest does not outweigh, it shall not be furnished. If on the other hand, there is no such risk perceived, the information even relating to third parties can as well be furnished. Thus information even relating to third parties, which not necessarily be public authorities is contemplated to be furnished under the Right to Information Act.

The party has not made any grounds not to disclose the information as sought by the appellant.

Most of the RTI requests are being rejected by raising the excuse of “third party”. The RTI Act do not impose a prohibition on disclosure of third party. The provisions of the law are clear that when only when the third party considered the information given to him was confidential, the PIO is expected to adopt the process of consultation under section 11 (1) of the RTI Act. Section 11 does not give a third party an unrestrained veto to refuse disclosing information.

The preamble of the Act says that the Act is passed because “democracy requires an informed citizenry and transparency of information which are vital to its functioning and also to contain corruption and holds Governments and their instrumentalities accountable to governed”.

Access to information should be made- user friendly and make operationnalised. The Right to Information Act guaranties time bound response to citizen’ queries on the matters of governance as provided under section 7 of the RTI Act 2005.

The very object of the Right to Information Act, 2005 is to bring a culture of transparency and accountability to provide for setting out the practical regimes of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of Public authorities. In order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every Public authority, democracy requires informed citizenry and transparency of information which are vital to its functioning and to contain corruption and to hold governments and their instrumentalities accountable to the governed.

Transparency brings government closure to the people - a closeness which underpins good governance. Inspite of repeated directions to the Public authority, the results on account of voluntarily disclosure have been below “Par”.

One of the cardinal aspects of the RTI i.e. timely furnishing of quality information to citizen at all levels is essential for transparency. However, the PIOs citing various excuses such as the records sought being vague.

Eternal vigilance is the price of democracy. We have very useful tool in RTI to make our democracy meaningful, vibrant and effective.

I am of the opinion that it is in the larger public interest to ensure transparency in the method of valuation of every public examination and to satisfy every candidate who appeared in the examination that his answer script has been valued properly, and non- disclosure of the information would be against the spirit of the Right of Information Act.

Thus, this Commission strongly believes that providing information would help ensure impartiality, objectivity and fairness.

In view of what has been discussed and observed above, the Commission transpires that the Respondent has failed to discharge his public functions and duty by not furnishing the required information to the information seeker in accordance with the provision of the RTI Act.

Sri S. Ghose, Inspector SIC (VIG) is hereby directed to collect all the documents which were submitted in the Commission during the course of hearing.

Accordingly the Commission allows the Complaint. This decision is announced in the open Court.

However, the next day, the applicant has filed another application i.e. on 17/10/2017 wherein he prayed the Commission to allow him to withdraw the case as he is least interested to take up the case. He further stated that he is now an employee and posted at Longding District under UD, Department.

Besides, the applicant does not want any more answer scripts as sought by him and prayed the Commission to quash the case.

Considering the matter in its entirety and in the interest of justice, it is, however, observed that the information sought by the applicant is not interested in the information as sought for, the Commission is inclined to close the case as prayed for.

Hence, the instant case stands disposed of.

Let the copy of this order be furnished to both the parties free of cost.

ORDER

Facts of the case in brief is that in 2016, some changes occurred in the political equations and political situation in the State of Arunachal Pradesh which led to suicide of former Chief Minister Lt. Kalikho Pul. It is brought to the notice of the Commission by the applicant that Sri J.P. Rajkhowa, the then Governor of Arunachal Pradesh. had made some correspondence with the Central Government for investigation of the suicide case by premier Investigation Agency-the CBI/NIA. The applicant complainant made an RTI application on 16/02/2017 to the Public Information Officer (PIO) in the Secretariat of the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, asking for copies of the Report sent by the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh to Hon'ble President of India, Hon'ble Vice President of India, Hon'ble Prime Minister of India through the Hon'ble Home Minister of India, demanding for CBI/ NIA Inquiry in connection with Late Kalikho Pul's "Unnatural death" in "Special Report" as follows:

1. Furnish the copy of “Special report” to Hon’ble President of India.
2. Furnish the copy of “Special report” to Hon’ble Vice President of India.
3. Furnish the copy of “Special report” to the Hon’ble Prime Minister of India.
4. Furnish the copy of “Special report” to the Hon’ble Home Minister of India.
5. Furnish the copy of all corresponding report and reply thereof on scams of Arunachal Pradesh till date.

By letter dated 17/04/2017, the PIO in the Secretariat of the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh denied to furnish the copy and wrote “kindly refer to your application dated 17th March, 2017 seeking information under RTI Act, 2005. I am directed to inform you that Governor’s Secretariat, Raj Bhavan being the office of the Constitutional Head of the State, needs to maintain confidentiality in certain cases pertaining to intelligence and security, including communications and reference by the Governor. The information sought being Special Reports of the Hon’ble Governor to the Hon’ble President of India, Hon’ble Vice- President, Hon’ble Prime Minister and Hon’ble Home Minister of India, are confidential and categorically restricted documents under various provisions of Section 8 of RTI Act, 2005, and hence, the same cannot be provided, as requested.” (Annexure-V).

Being aggrieved by the refusal, the applicant filed a complaint before the Arunachal Pradesh Information Commission (APIC) under section 18 (1) of the RTI Act, 2005. Upon receipt of the complaint, the APIC issued a notice to the PIO to the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh requiring him to appear before the Commission in person on 11/05/2017. APIO-cum- Under Secretary to Governor of Arunachal Pradesh appeared before the Commission claiming immunity under Article 361 of the constitution of India and contended that the Governor cannot be arrayed as a party in any proceeding. The APIO further contended that the Governor is not a public authority under the RTI Act. The APIO further stated that he is not the custodian of the records and as such he was unable to take any decision on the issue and prayed the Commission to issue summon to the designated PIO to reply the queries made by the Complainant. Accordingly the Commission passed an order directing the designated PIO to appear before the Commission on 26/05/2017 for hearing.

During the hearing, the designated PIO raised the same issue as given by the APIO and expressed his inability to furnish the said documents to the applicant and he further contended that the information sought by the complainant is in the custody of the competent authority i.e. Secretary to the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh and prayed the Commission to direct the said public authority to furnish the information as sought for by the complainant.

Before passing any order, the Commission has to go through the various provision of RTI Act and interpret the correct definition of “competent authority” and “public authority” as provided in the Act for judicious decision of the case. Therefore, the Commission has to consider the following issues before any decision is arrived at.

Issues:-

1. Whether the Governor is a “public authority” within the meaning of section 2 (h) of the RTI Act? And whether by reason of being included in the definition of “competent authority” he stands excluded from the definition of “public authority” under the RTI Act.
2. Whether the Governor is a sovereign and being sovereign no direction can be issued to Governor for disclosure of any information under the RTI Act?
3. What is the extent of immunity enjoyed by the Governor under Article-361 of constitution of India? Whether in view of such immunity, no direction can be issued and no order can be passed under the RTI Act, which has an effect of requiring the Governor to disclose any information under RTI Act?
4. Whether the information sought is exempt from the disclosure under section 8 (1) (e) of the RTI Act?

In order to decide the question, it is necessary to refer to the definition of the “competent authority” and the “public authority” as given in RTI Act, 2005, which read as:-

Under section 2 (e) “competent authority” means:-

- (i) The speaker in the case of the House of the people or the Legislative Assembly and the Chairman in the case of the Councils of State or Legislative Council of a State;
- (ii) The Chief Justice of India in the case of the Supreme Court;
- (iii) The Chief Justice of the High Court in case of a High Court;
- (iv) The President or the Governor, as the case may, in the case of other authorities established or constituted by or under the constitution;
- (v) The administrator appointed under Article 239 of the constitution;

Under section 2 (h) “public authority” means any authority or body or institution of self Government established or constituted:-

- (a) by or under the constitution.
- (b) by any other law made by Parliament.
- (c) by any other law made by State Legislature.
- (d) by notification issued or order made by appropriate Government, and includes any:-
 - (i) body owned, controlled or substantially financed;
 - (ii) Non- Government organization substantially financed, directly or indirectly by funds provided by the appropriate Government;

Under section 2 (h) of the RTI Act, “public authority” includes any authority or body or institution of self-government established or constituted by or under the constitution. Undoubtedly, the post of President and that of the Governor is created by the constitution. Article 52 of the constitution says there shall be a President of India. Article 153 of the constitution says there shall be a Governor for each state. Posts of the President and Governor are created by the constitution being so, the President and Governor are clearly covered by section 2 (h) of the definition of the “public authority”. Both the President & the Governor are enjoying immunity under Article-361 of the constitution, but the President & the Governor do not enjoy any other sovereign immunity from disclosure of information under the RTI Act.

When RTI application is made to PIO in the office of the Governor by a citizen for disclosure of an information in possession of the Governor, the PIO would ordinarily seek views of the public authority on the application. If the public authority (including the Governor) has no objection for disclosure of the information, no difficulty would arise and the information would be disclosed to the applicant. If the public authority raises objection to the disclosure, either in the form of exemption under section 8 of the RTI Act or on the ground mentioned in section 9 of the RTI Act, or any other ground, permissible in law, the PIO would then be required to decide whether the information is so exempt and/ or is not liable to disclosure to citizen making the application. If the decision of the PIO or of the appellate authority as the case may be, is the information required to be disclosed and is not exempt from the disclosure, an order of disclosure would be issued.

Section 3 of the RTI Act confers upon a citizen’s right to have an information. Indeed, it only recognizes the right which already exist in a citizen to have an information which is regarded as Fundamental Right to Freedom of Speech and Expression under Article 19 (1) (a) of the Constitution.

Section 4 of the RTI Act confers a corresponding obligation on public authority to give information proactively and suo-motu disclosure of information under this Act so that access to such record is facilitated and the citizen does not have to resort to the provisions of the Act.

In view of the Commission, the public authority, be it Governor or anybody else, would then be required to disclose the information. Any direction so, issued, in my considered opinion, would not enjoy any immunity under Article 361 of the constitution of India.

The Governor, before assuming his office, takes oath not only to preserve, protect and defend the constitution, but also the law. He is bound by oath taken by him. If law requires disclosure of an information and if it is so held by the PIO or the FAA in accordance with the RTI Act, in my considered view, the Governor by virtue of oath of office he takes is bound to obey the decision and disclose the information, or else, he would not be defending law i.e. RTI Act.

From the record, it is revealed that the Secretary to Governor of Arunachal Pradesh had written letters on 31/03/2017 and 26/05/2017 respectively to the Principal Secretary Administrative Reforms (AR) Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh requesting exemption of the office of the Governor under section 24 of the RTI Act, 2005 (Annexure-V). Smt Mimam Tayeng, the Joint-Secretary to the Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh is in her reply dated 21/11/2016 had made clear that the exemption granted under provision of section 24 of the RTI Act, 2005, is specifically to the Intelligence and Security organization. The exemption given to the security and Intelligence organization can not be applied randomly to other organization as aforesaid section is organization specific and the information sought by the appellant is not covered by section 24 or 8 of the RTI Act.

It is pertinent to mentioned here that the State Govt. is not competent to make law or amend/ alter/ rescind any provision of the RTI Act. Only the Parliament of India is competent to do so. Under section 27 of the RTI Act, 2005, the State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the provision of this Act.

Section 22 of the RTI Act provides that the Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in the Official Secret Act, 1923, and any other law for the time being in force or any instrument having effect by virtue of any law other than this Act.

Conclusions:-

For reasons mentioned above, I record my conclusion as follows:-

Point No. 1:

The Governor is a public authority within the meaning of section 2 (h) of the RTI Act. He would not cease to be a public authority under section 2 (e) of the RTI Act.

Point No.2:

The Governor is not a sovereign and sovereignty does not vest in him. The contention that by reason of him being sovereign no direction cannot be issued to the Governor for disclosure of any information under RTI Act, it cannot be accepted.

Point No- 3:

By reason of Article 361 of the constitution of India, the Governor enjoys complete immunity and is not answerable to any Court of law in exercise and performance of the powers and duties of his office and any act done or purporting to be done by him in exercise and performance of his duties; but the immunity granted under Article 361 (1) of the constitution of India does not take away the powers of the Court to examine the validity of his action including on ground of malafide. The Governor of the PIO in his office cannot claim immunity from disclosure of any information under the RTI Act.

Point no- 4:

The relationship between the President of India and the Governor of State is not fiduciary. President cannot be said to hold fiduciary position qua - the Governor of the State. Consequently, the information sought for by the applicant i.e. copies of the record made by Governor to the President, Vice President, Prime Minister and the Home Minister is not exempt from disclosure under section 8 (1) (e) of RTI Act, 2005.

Perused the case record. From the records, it transpires to this Commission that the Respondent has deliberately violated section 7 (1) of the RTI Act by not furnishing the information as sought for by the applicant complainant. Therefore, the conduct of the Respondent PIO is deprecated.

Information sought in Sl No. 5 regarding report and reply on scams of Arunachal Pradesh, the information sought is not specific and as such it cannot be furnished by the PIO.

Access to information should be made user - friendly and make operationalised. The Right to Information Act guarantees time bound response to citizens' queries on the matters of governance as provided under section 7 of the RTI Act 2005.

The very object of the Right to Information Act, 2005 is to bring a culture of transparency and accountability to provide for setting out the practical regimes of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities.

In order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority, democracy requires an informed citizenry and transparency of information which are vital to its functioning and also to contain corruption and to hold governments and their instrumentalities accountable to the governed.

Transparency brings government closer to the people - a closeness which underpins good governance. In spite of repeated directions to the public authorities, the results on account of voluntarily disclosure have been below "par".

One of the cardinal aspects of the RTI i.e. timely furnishing of quality information to citizen at all levels is essential for transparency. However, the PIOs are citing various reasons by claiming exemption under section 8 and other provisions of the RTI Act and deliberately denied information to the citizens.

Eternal vigilance is the price of democracy. We have a very useful tool in RTI to make our democracy meaningful, vibrant and effective.

DECISION:

Thus, this commission strongly believes that providing information would help ensure impartiality, objectivity and fairness. The information which is already in the public domain should be furnished to the citizen in accordance with the provision of the Act.

In view of what has been discussed and observed above, the Commission is of considered view that the respondent has failed to furnish the information as sought for within the stipulated period of 30 days in violation of section 7(1) of the RTI Act, 2005 and as such the said information sought should be furnished to the applicant in accordance with the provision of the Act.

Accordingly the Commission set aside the order dated 26/05/2017 passed by the PIO and allows the complaint.

Since, the Respondent Shri Vinod P. Kavle, IAS, Secretary to the Governor, Raj Bhawan, Itanagar, who has the custody of the documents is hereby directed to appear before the Commission and furnish the available information to the applicant free of cost on 26/07/2017 at 1030 Hrs.

With the above direction, the instant case stands disposed of.

Let the copy of this order be furnished to both the parties free of cost.

ORDER

Fact of the case in brief is that the appellant has filed an RTI application before the Respondent PIO on 05/12/2016 seeking information pertaining to appointment of person's under meritorious sports quota of Sub-Inspector, Assistant Sub-Inspector, Constable, WC, operator, UDC, LDC, Driver, and Peon under Civil Police and IRBN.

The Respondent PIO has furnished some of the information to the applicant appellant on 28/12/2016 vide his letter No. PHQ/PB/RTI/ ID. No. 71/2016 dated 28/12/2016 containing 59 (fifty nine) pages and informed the appellant to file an appeal before the First Appellate Authority (FAA) under section 19 (1) of the RTI Act, 2005.

The appellant has filed an appeal before the First Appellate Authority (FAA) - the Director General of Police on 19/01/2017 on the ground of incomplete furnishing of documents as sought for in form 'A' i.e. Sl.No - III, IV, V and VII.

The First Appellate Authority (FAA) in his reply vide letter. No. PHQ/PB/RTI/ ID. No. 71/2016 dated 14/02/2017 stated that all the available information has been furnished to the appellant and transferred his application to the PIOs under sub-section (3) of section 6 of RTI Act, 2005 to supply the application directly to the appellant.

Being aggrieved by the decisions of the PIO and the First Appellate Authority (FAA), the appellant filed a second appeal before the Arunachal Pradesh Information Commission (APIC) on 19/01/2017 on the ground of incomplete information furnished.

The Commission has taken cognizance of the appeal on 03/04/2017 and issued notice upon both the First Appellate Authority (FAA) and Public Information Officer (PIO) to appear before the Commission along with the information sought by the appellant.

Heard the parties. Perused the case records. Prima Facie, it appears to the Commission that the respondent PIO has deliberately denied the information as sought by the applicant appellant. it is apparent that the PIO is guilty of not furnishing information within time specified under sub-section (1) of section 7 of the RTI Act by not furnishing all the information within 30 days as per the requirement of the Act.

Sub-section (3) of section 6 of the RTI Act, 2005 clearly provides that where an application is made to a public authority requesting for an information:

1. which is held by another public authority; or
2. the subject matter of which is more closely connected with the functions of another public authority, the public authority, to which such application is made, shall transfer the application or such part of it as may be appropriate to that other public authority and inform the applicant immediately about such transfer:

Provided that the transfer of an application pursuant to this sub-section shall be made as soon as practicable but in no case later than five days from the date of receipt of the application.

However, while admitting the delay, the PIO explained before the Commission that the some of the information being technical nature had to be gathered from different district, does resulting in delay.

The PIO has not transferred the application to the other public authority and therefore, the PIO is held responsible for non compliance of the said provision of the Act.

It is also the duty of the public authority to publish information under section 4 (1) (b) of the act i.e. the obligation of the PIO to proactively and suo-motu disclosure of information so that a citizen does not have to resort to the provision of the RTI Act.

The Public Information Officer (PIO) has erred in interpretation of the provisions of the Act and its effective implementation in true spirit of total transparency in functioning of the Public bodies. The outcomes of the examination process should be put in Public domain so that the affected persons can have access to it.

Documents submitted by the candidates at the time of an examination conducted for a job selection cannot be considered as personal information. Besides the documents were given in course of a Public activity which is appearing for a Job for a Public position. Besides it is impossible to imagine that disclosing of documents cannot be considered as privacy domain of an individual.

The appointing or recommending authority in the matters of such selection, are required and expected to act objectively and to select the best and to see that whether the documents submitted by the candidates are authentic or not. Such selection process remains subject to Judicial review.

Therefore, the access to or inspection of documents cannot be kept out of the purview of the “information” or for that matter from the purview of records by stretch of imagination.

Deciding Complaint or appeal under the RTI Act is a Quasi-Judicial function. It is, therefore, necessary that the Public Authority should see to it, that justice is not only done, but it should also appear to have been done. In order to do so, the order passed by the PIO should be a speaking order giving justification for just decision arrived at. But in this given case no such orders have been passed by the PIO as per the requirement of the Act.

Therefore, the applicant should be provided photocopies of the documents as sought for including appointment made.

Access to information should be made - user friendly and make operationnalised. The Right to Information Act guaranties time bound response to citizen’s queries on the matters of governance as provided under section 7 of the RTI Act 2005.

The very object of the Right to Information Act, 2005 is to bring a culture of transparency and accountability to provide for setting out the practical regimes of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of Public authorities. In order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of Public authority, democracy requires informed citizenry and transparency of information which are vital to its functioning and to contain corruption and to hold governments and their instrumentalities accountable to the governed.

Transparency brings government closer to the people a closeness which underpins good governance. In spite of repeated directions to the Public authority, the results on account of voluntarily disclosure have been below "Par".

One of the cardinal aspects of the RTI i.e. timely furnishing of quality information to citizen at all levels is essential for transparency. However, the PIOs citing various excuses by citing sections 8, 11 and other exemption clauses of the Act to deliberately deny the information to the information seekers.

Eternal vigilance is the price of democracy. We have very useful tool in RTI to make our democracy meaningful, vibrant and effective.

I am of the opinion that it is in the larger public interest to ensure transparency in furnishing of documents of every public examination and to satisfy every candidate who appeared in the examination that his documents are authentic or not and non-disclosure of the information would be against the spirit of the Right of Information Act.

Thus, this Commission strongly believes that providing information would help ensure impartiality, objectivity and fairness.

In view of what has been discussed and observed above, the Commission transpires that the Respondent has failed to discharge his public functions and duty by not furnishing the required information to the information seeker in accordance with the provision of the RTI Act.

Therefore, the Respondent PIO is directed to appear before the Commission along with the remaining information as sought for failing which the Commission shall invoke section 20 (1) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 upon the erring PIO.

Accordingly the next date of hearing fixed on 29/08/2017 at 1030 Hrs. for final disposal of the case.

Let the copy of this order be furnished both the parties free of cost.
